David Rosengarten at Bar Ferdinand

Since the turn of the century food lovers across the country have been in turmoil from the absence of David Rosengarten from the Food Network. The former host of the show, Taste, has a following strong enough to immortalize him forever for his passion of food and wine and educating others so they too can enjoy what that world has to offer. To communicate his passion David has become a writer for magazines such as Food & Wine, Gourmet, and Bon Appetit, as well as an author of several cookbooks.

On October 24th, the collaborative menu presented by Chef Blake Joffe at Bar Ferdinand will feature recipes from David Rosengarten Entertains: Fabulous Parties for Food Lovers, serving you a sizzling evening filled with food and wine that will tantalize your senses. So make reservations now at 215-923-1313.

David Joachim and Andy Schloss at Mission Grill

As this year's football season takes off grills are being ignited, signifying the start of the tailgating season. Many go no further than their hot dogs and hamburgers. For them this will yet again be another season of boring proteins and side dishes. But then there are those who crave more from a pigskin al fresco. For those who believe tailgating is another opportunity for a great culinary experience, here's THE book for you. With the release of David Joachim and Andy Schloss's book, Mastering the Grill, people are becoming more aware of the grill's potential. This is not just some ordinary book with simple recipes and tips, it's a revelation. Mastering the Grill, introduces all the different types of equipment, fuel to use to feed your fire enhancing flavor, and recipes that will make you the king (or queen) of tailgating. These recipes bring grilling to a new height with Grilled Soft-Shell Crab with Dill Butter Sauce and a Grilled Scallop with Foie Gras Cream.

So come join us at Mission Grill on October 25th to revel in this most special grilling occasion as Chef Jose Vargas presents David Joachim and Andy Schloss. These native Pennsylvanian author's recipes will be featured in a collaborative menu, so call right now to 215-636-9550 for reservations.
